Provenance

Donated to the Lebanon Public Library by Glen Neaves in 1976.

Scope and Content

This collection contains the minute book for Boone County Pomona Grange No. 1 covering the years 1890-1893.

Background

The National Grange of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, commonly known as the Grange, was founded December 4, 1867, in Washington, DC. The Grange is a fraternal organization with a particular focus on agricultural advocacy. The Boone County Pomona Grange No. 1 was organized in 1890. The last entry in the minute book is from February 25, 1893. The actions of this meeting were reported in the Lebanon Patriot on March 9, 1893, but the Boone County Pomona Grange No. 1 seems to disappear from the record thereafter.

Sources

Access Restrictions: None

Related Holdings: Special Collections: Worth Township Farm Bureau; Vertical Files: Fraternal Orders.

Preferred Citation: Boone County Pomona Grange No. 1, Special Collections, Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, Lebanon, IN.