Provenience

Unknown

Scope and Content

This collection contains a binder with newspaper clippings, floorplans, photographs, and cards related to Fountain View Manor. It also has an obituary and funeral cards for Caroljan Henson. The photographs are of the laying of drainage tile near Maple Drive in April 1986 and of the 1986 Fourth of July Parade in Lebanon (Anawa Enterprise, Inc., Anderson’s company, entered a float in the parade).

Background

Fountain View Manor was an apartment complex project in Lebanon proposed by Patricia Anderson. The complex was to have been constructed on Maple Drive. In 1986, the Lebanon Board of Zoning Appeals and the Lebanon Planning Board approved the project, but it did not get the approval of the City Plan Commission.

According to her obituary, Anderson was the first female real estate broker in Boone County.

Sources

Access Restrictions: None.

Related Holdings: None

Preferred Citation: Fountain View Manor, Special Collections, Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, Lebanon, IN.