Rainbowettes

Finding Aid Prepared by Eric Spall, 2017

Provenance

Donated to the Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, by Patricia Day on June 20, 2012.

Scope and Content

This collection contains a scrapbook and papers from the Rainbowettes, a girls choir in Lebanon.

Series

I. Scrapbook, 1 vol., 1941-1960 (contains newspaper clippings, correspondence, and photographs)
II. Correspondence
III. Miscellaneous (includes notes on the history of the group, the constitution, an initiation service, a concert program, a photograph, and a memorial service program for James Tanselle, 1956)

Background

The Rainbowettes were started around 1939, probably by Ralph Howard, the group’s first leader. The group consisted of sophomore, junior, and senior girls from Lebanon High School, who were admitted by vote. The group was not officially affiliated with the school.

Access Restrictions: None

Related Holdings: Photographs-Clubs/Organizations/Societies

Preferred Citation: Rainbowettes, Special Collections, Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, Lebanon, IN.