Provenance

Unknown

Scope and Content

This collection contains a scrapbook and papers related to the Boone County Veterans of World War 1 of the USA barracks. The majority of the collection pertains to the Ladies Auxiliary. In addition to papers pertinent to the local barracks auxiliary, it also includes publications from the state and national level.

Series

I. Charters (includes charters for Barracks No. 525 and the Ladies Auxiliary to Barracks No. 525)
II. Scrapbook, 1 vol., 1972-1976 (includes a membership roster and newspaper clippings)
III. Certificates (includes Awards of Merit and Certificates of Installation)
IV. Correspondence
V. Indiana Department General Orders, 1972-1976
VI. Indiana Department Membership Lists and Reports, 1972-1978, 1984-1986
VII. Indiana Department State Conventions, 1962, 1971-1973
IX. Miscellaneous (includes lists of officers and hostesses for Barracks No. 525 Auxiliary and “The Indiana World War Memorial Indianapolis Indiana” fold-out publication)

Background

The Veterans of World War 1 of the USA was organized in the 1940s as a fraternity for American veterans of the First World War and was officially chartered by Congress in 1958. The Ladies Auxiliary was created for the wives and daughters of WWI veterans. The Boone County Barracks No. 525 and its Auxiliary were chartered in 1956.

Sources

Access Restrictions: None

Related Holdings: Vertical Files: Veterans--World War 1

Preferred Citation: National Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of World War 1 of the USA Barracks No. 525, Special Collections, Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, Lebanon, IN.