Provenance

Unknown; Series VIII.A donated to the Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center by the Magazine Club on May 11, 2017.

Scope and Content

The collection contains papers and photographs of the Magazine Club. The minute binders in Series I contain minutes, programs, newspaper clippings, correspondence, and some ephemera.

For Series VIII.B: Other Photographs see Photographs-Magazine Club.

Series

I. Minutes, 4 vols., 1956-2004
II. History
III. Constitutions
IV. Programs and Guest Book
V. Financial
VI. Correspondence
   A. 1946
   B. 1960s
   C. 1980s-1990s
   D. Undated
VII. Miscellaneous (includes a membership list, undated club Valentine’s Day book, 50th anniversary napkin, and a 1991-1992 program for Boone County Symphony Band)
VIII. Photographs
   A. Albums (2 albums; 1 covers club meetings from 1994-2001; 1 covers the club’s centennial celebration on October 22, 1995, at Ulen Country Club)
   B. Other Photographs

Background
Founded in Lebanon in 1895, the Magazine Club is a women’s social organization. It originated as a literary society but by the 1970s had expanded its focus to include a variety of topics. The club has operated continuously since its founding, though it replaced meetings with Red Cross service during World Wars I and II.

Sources

Access Restrictions: None.

Related Holdings: Vertical Files: Clubs; Magazine Club

Preferred Citation: Magazine Club, Special Collections, Ralph W. Stark Heritage Center, Lebanon Public Library, Lebanon, IN.